

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. The privacy law has been very effective in cutting down on telephone solicitations. I pay for my telephone service, and I should not have to tolerate unwanted sales calls.